

Client Information Policy

1. Purpose

Australian Institute of Professionals (AIP) is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (SRTOs 2015). As such, AIP is required to make available accurate and accessible information about the RTO, its services and performance to prospective and current clients.

2. Policy Statement

AIP is committed to ensuring that current and prospective clients are provided with all relevant training and assessment information regarding the RTO, training and assessment products and its services, so that they may make informed decision about undertaking training and assessment.

AIP provides clear information regarding:

- Courses offered; including services, course content and vocational outcomes, as per AIP scope of registration;
- Fees and charges, including payment terms, refund policy and exemptions (where applicable);
- Provision for language, literacy and numeracy assistance;
- Client support;
- Flexible learning and assessment options;
- Appeals and complaints processes;
- Recognition of prior learning and credit transfer arrangements;
- Arrangements with third parties;
- Funding and subsidy arrangements (as applicable);
- Industry licences or regulated outcomes (relevant to course offerings);
- Certification; and
- Course resource requirements (additional or supplied).

3. Definitions

3.1 The following words and expressions have the following specific meaning, as in the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

Educational and support services may include, but are not limited to:

- a) pre-enrolment materials;
- b) study support and study skills programs;
- c) language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) programs or referrals to these programs;
- d) equipment, resources and/or programs to increase access for learners with disabilities and other learners in accordance with access and equity;
- e) learning resource centers;
- f) mediation services or referrals to these services;
- g) flexible scheduling and delivery of training and assessment;

- h) counseling services or referrals to these services;
- i) information and communications technology (ICT) support;
- j) learning materials in alternative formats, for example, in large print;
- k) learning and assessment programs contextualised to the workplace; and
- l) any other services that the RTO considers necessary to support learners to achieve competency.

Mode of delivery means the method adopted to deliver training and assessment, including online, distance, or blended methods.

Scope of registration means the training products for which an RTO is registered to issue AQF certification documentation. It allows the RTO to:

- a) both provide training delivery and assessment resulting in the issuance of AQF certification documentation by the RTO; or
- b) provide assessment resulting in the issuance of AQF certification documentation by the RTO.

4. Policy Principles

4.1 Underpinning Principles

- a) AIP provides accurate, relevant and up-to-date information to clients and prospective clients, prior to enrolment or commencement of training and assessment, regarding their training and assessment options so that they may make informed choices regarding their learning needs.
- b) AIP maintains an up-to-date website with full client information.
- c) Course brochures have been developed for each training program and are available to all current and prospective clients.
- d) All information provided to current and prospective clients:
